

Check out these Community Gardens near you!

---

The Crescent Grange Community Garden

Location: 7901 W 120th Ave.

Contact: Butter Wilde: Butterpoweredbike@gmail.com

The Broomfield Crescent Grange Community Garden is a true communal garden space which is shared, worked, and harvested by all its volunteers. The Crescent Grange holds deep agricultural ties and implements permaculture practices. The Garden provides tremendous community outreach by providing many educational workshops and programs geared towards gardening and community engagement.

Birch Community Garden

Location: 1080 Birch Street (Salvation Army)

Contact: Sharon Josephs: Sharyjoe22@gmail.com

The Birch Community Garden is located on Broomfield Salvation Army property in a quaint residential setting. The Garden contains 18 individual plots and 3 large, food donation plots, which provided over 1000 lbs of donated produce to local organizations in need last year. The Birch Garden partners with Birch Elementary and other local organizations to provide garden based educational opportunities to children and the community.

CenturyLink's Community Garden

Location: 10700 Ridge Pkwy

Contact: Sondra Smith: Sondra.smith@centurylink.com

Century Link's Giving Garden was funded entirely by outside donations and built through the exceptional efforts of over 450 volunteers. This Community Garden is set over the beautiful backdrop of the surrounding mountain range and consists of 56 raised beds. A portion of each member's harvest is donated to local food banks through scheduled Harvest Days.

Discovery Church Community Garden

Location: 2605 W 144th Ave.

Contact: Nancy Movick: Nancy@dc2.me

The Discovery Church Community Garden is open to all members of the community to participate. The Garden is located adjacent to the Church and is organized by the Discovery Church members. The garden consists of 21 garden beds of varying size.

The Veteran's Peace Garden

Location: 825 Kohl St.

Contact: Mark Stevens: PegMark@comcast.net

The Veteran's Peace Garden is supported and maintained by military and Peace Corp. Veterans, Scouts, families, and neighbors. The garden is a unique space which honors a variety of heritages, cultures, and beliefs. This sacred space is located on the property of the United Church of Broomfield and open to all who wish to participate. The garden is a shared, communal, safe space to honor peace, people, and cultures.

Emerald Elementary School Garden

Location: 275 Emerald Street

Contact: Leslie Norcross: Bottorfl@hotmail.com

The Emerald Elementary School garden works in partnership with the Grow Foundation to enrich student education, engage parents, and help our community address health and environmental issues through their Garden to Table Program. Parent volunteers and teachers work together to maintain 8 raised beds and provide easy to implement, garden based, grade specific lessons to students through hands on learning.

Kohl Elementary School Garden

Location: 1000 W 10th Ave.

Contact: Therese Lutkus: therese.lutkus@bvsd.org

The Kohl Elementary School Garden is utilized to provide lessons and experiences to students. The garden was created as part of the outdoor classroom in the 2011. It consists of 6 raised beds and 7 barrel planters and is funded through grants and donations. Partnerships with Eagle Scouts and Tagawa Gardens have also helped to support the garden. In 2012 the garden helped Therese's class win the Disney Planet Challenge for the state of Colorado.

Broomfield's Community Gardens

Discovery Church
2605 W 144th Ave

Birch Garden
1080 Birch Street

Veteran's Peace Garden
825 Kohl St.

Kohl Elementary
1000 W 10th Ave

Emerald Elementary
275 Emerald Street

Crescent Grange
7901 W 120th Ave

Century Link Garden
10700 Ridge Pkwy